Mr. and Mrs. William Boell, 4231 W. 174th St., attended a Christmas open house this afternoon at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Mel Packer in Inglewood.

Children's Hospital to Receive Gift

A luncheon and fashion show were enjoyed by members of the Women's Auxiliary to the South Bay Pharmaceutical Assn. last Thursday at the Pen & Quill restaurant in Manhattan Beach.

Each member received a Christmas corsage and a miniature stocking at her place, cleverly done by Mmes. James Kamada and Donald Demarest. In lieu of a Christmas gift exchange, members voted to send a donation to the South Bay Auxiliary to the Children's Hospital, in hopes some child may have a brighter Christmas. This will become a yearly event at Christmas-time.

Guests enjoying the festivities were Mmes. Connie Alber, Donald Cotrell, Arthur B. Nelson and B. Tatge.

Members attending were: Mmes. Jack Dean, president; Peter Aspen, Charles Bogolea, Sam Caramelli, Demarest, Irving Edwards, Erwin Fietz, Robert Greenlees, Ronald Holt, Doug Ingle, Roger Jackson, Kamada, Ralph Rector and Fred Reese.

The Jan. 9 luncheon meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Reese.

Woman Wins Hairstyling Sweepstakes

Mrs. Eleanor Wilcox, a member of the senior cosmetology class at El Camino College, was winner of the sweepstakes award in the recent interschool hairstyle contest held at the Biltmore Hotel, it was announced today by Dr. William H. Harless, director of instruction at El Camino.

Five schools represented Southern California in the competition. Mrs. Wilcox was also the first place winner of a recent hairstyling contest in which she competed with fellow students at El Camino College.

The winning design, modeled by Mrs. Jerry Moore of Manhattan Beach, was a smooth version of the "Siren Lift," emphasizing the molded wave lines with flared sides.

Another first went to Mrs. Helen Giles, of El Camino. Mrs. Giles took top honors in the junior division. A third El Camino entrant, Miss Lynda Davenport, was awarded third place in the junior division. Both stylists featured vertical waves going back from the face, ending in a soft fluff line, close to the nape of the neck.

Color awards were granted to Mrs. Wilcox and Miss Nancy Slane for their outstanding technique in the art of hair coloring.

Consistently a winner in the Southland cosmetology competitions, the El Camino department is under the instruction of Mrs. Beulah Mezzanatto, Mrs. Margaret Robinson, Mrs. Margaret Erickson, and Mrs. Jessie Lewis.

Arlington

Arlington PTA executive board held a Christmas luncheon and gift exchange on Dec. 18 at the school cafeteria. The table decorations and individual corsages were made by Mrs. Marie Borhese and Mrs. Donna Gilbert and their committees. Mrs. Jack Prince, president, showed a school movie that she had taken herself over a period of time.

AFIS Pupils Guests at B&PW Meet

The observances of Christmas in Belgium and Holland were described for members of the Torrance Business and Professional Women at their dinner meeting held at the Jump 'n Jack restaurant last Monday evening.

Christmas in Belgium was described by Lucienne Eshoult, foreign exchange student who is making her home here with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coge, while attending high school under the American Field Service plan. Lucienne said that there were two celebrations in her country, one on Dec. 6 when a gift exchange is held, and the other on Dec. 25, when the birth of Christ is religiously observed.

Nadja Basmadjian of Greece, another American Field Service student who makes her home with Mrs. Grace Hinchshaw, described the Christmas celebrations in Greece. Two days are set aside for religious observances of the birth of Christ, on Dec. 25 and again Jan. 6. Nadja also told of a custom of baking a cake in which there is a coin. The person receiving the piece of cake bearing the coin is supposed to have a fortunate new year.

Miss Marjorie Towell, North High School student, who spent the summer in Sweden under the AFSIS program, was also a special guest.

Sorority Set To Give Gifts To Patients

Holiday treats for patients of the Ocean View Rest Home was the topic of conversation when Chi Omega Alumnae of the South Bay area met Dec. 17, at their annual "Christmas Kindness" party.

Mrs. William V. Schneider was hostess for the festive event in her Hermosa Beach home, 2317 Manhattan Ave. Assisting was Mrs. Quinn Boyd, Mrs. Arthur Montgomery and Mrs. Robert A. Moore, president of the group.

Members exchanged Christmas gifts and wrapped small presents to be presented to patients at the home. Senior citizens are the special concern of Chi Omegas throughout the country, but all families are urged to remember at least one "outside" older person this Christmas.

Brownie Troop 249 of Manhattan Beach, under the leadership of Mrs. Cecil Robinson, will present a program of Christmas carols at the home, today.

CHANUKAH PARTY

A Chanukah assembly for the children of the Hebrew and Sunday School of the Gardena Valley Jewish Center, 14725 S. Gramercy Pl., Gardena, will be held on Sunday morning, Dec. 22, at 10 o'clock. The public is invited.

There will be a minimum charge per family. An interesting program featuring Chanukah songs, dances and plays has been arranged. Refreshments will be served by the Sisterhood with special goodies for all the children present.

The school children will exchange gifts in their respective rooms. They also will bring gifts to be sent to needy families elsewhere.

Probing the atom... for you

Atomic scientists are finding exciting uses for the boundless energy of the uranium atom

EVERY DAY BRINGS the benefits of atomic energy closer to our daily living. It presents a new tool and a new field of exploration for scientists all over the world.

A longer, healthier life is hopefully ahead as the controlled rays of the atom are first used to pin-point and then to destroy malignant tissues. Radiation studies of how plants absorb nutrition from sun and soil are showing the way to improved food supplies. And other research indicates that it may soon be possible to store irradiated foods indefinitely—without using refrigeration.

These are but a few of the vital jobs being done by radioisotopes—materials made radioactive by exposure to splitting uranium atoms. Radioisotopes of such elements as sodium, iron, and iodine are created in atomic furnaces or reactors at Oak Ridge . . . the great atomic energy center operated by Union Carbide for the Atomic Energy Commission.

The people of Union Carbide will continue their pioneering research and development in atomic energy to bring you a brighter future.
